The following text in English translation of the Czechoslovak-Bulgarian trade treaty of 7 April 1948 is based on a German translation of the Czech original.

The treaty itself is followed by an agreement of the same date concerning method of payment. There then follow three notes written by the chairman of the Czechoslovak Delegation, Engr. PLEVA, to the chairman of the Bulgarian Delegation in Prague, Ivan TUTEV. Indices A and B, referred to in the trade treaty, comprising lists of goods to be delivered from Bulgaria to the CSR and from the CSR to Bulgaria, respectively, are included here as Appendices A and B, respectively.

I. Trade Treaty between the Czechoslovak Republic and the People's Republic of Bulgaria

The Government of the Czechoslovak Republic and the Government of the People's Republic of Bulgaria, animated by the desire to extend and deepen commercial relations between the two countries as far as possible, have agreed to the following:

Article 1

The exchange of goods between the two countries will be carried out on the basis of the two attached indices A and B which form an indivisible part of this treaty. Additional indices supplementing indices A and B may be drawn up during the time of validity of this treaty.

Article 2

Both contracting parties obligate themselves to do everything in their power to safeguard the deliveries of goods in accordance with indices A and B.

Article 3

In the granting of export and import licenses, one contracting party will not charge the other contracting party higher tariffs than any other country with which the one contracting party trades.

Article 4

Payments originating in the course of execution of this treaty will be made in accordance with the provisions of the payment agreement which was signed today and which forms an indivisible part of this treaty.

Article 5

Goods of Czechoslovak origin to be exported to the People's Republic of Bulgaria in accordance with the provisions of this treaty, will be shipped f.o.b. Czechoslovak border or f.o.b. Czechoslovak Danube harbor, as the buyer may desire. Goods of Bulgarian origin to be exported to the Czechoslovak Republic under the provisions of this treaty, will be shipped f.o.b. Bulgarian border or f.o.b. Bulgarian port.

Article 6

In order to facilitate execution of this treaty, a joint commission will be set up composed of delegates from both contracting parties. This joint commission will supervise the execution of this treaty and will make recommendations for improvement and development of the exchange of goods and the transfer of payments and will also attempt to remove difficulties which might occur in the course of the exchange of goods. This joint commission will also make recommendations to the competent ministries concerning supplements to this treaty as provided for in Article 1.

This joint commission will be set up within 45 days, counting from the day this treaty is signed, and will meet in Prague or in Sofia as may be necessary.

Article 7

This treaty becomes valid on the day it is signed, subject to subsequent approval by both governments, and will continue to be valid until 31 December 1948. The validity of this treaty will be automatically extended for three more months in case, on the day of expiration of this treaty, no new trade treaty should have been signed. If after this treaty has expired, a balance in favor of one contracting party remains, the debtor country will either deliver goods in accordance with indices A and B or other goods to settle the balance as the two contracting parties may desire.

Article 8

All obligations incurred during the time of validity of this treaty remain valid after the treaty has expired and will be settled in accordance with the provisions of this treaty.

Given at Prague on 7 April 1948 in two equivalent originals in the Czech and Bulgarian languages.

2. Payment Agreement between the Czechoslovak Republic and the People's Republic of Bulgaria

In order to simplify payments between the Czechoslovak Republic and the People's Republic of Bulgaria, the Government of the Czechoslovak Republic and the Government of the People's Republic of Bulgaria have concluded the following payment agreement.

Article 1

Payments between the Czechoslovak Republic and the People's Republic of Bulgaria, resulting from the exchange of goods carried out in accordance with the trade treaty signed today and all other payments concomitant with the exchange of goods, will be made in Czechoslovak crowns.

Article 2

The competent authorities in both countries will grant necessary permits for transfer of funds in accordance with foreign exchange regulations governing such payments in each country. In the Czechoslovak Republic such payments will be channeled through the Czechoslovak National Bank; in Bulgaria through the Bulgarian National Bank.

Article 3

The Czechoslovak National Bank will open an account free of interest in the name of the Bulgarian National Bank. All payments made by Czechoslovak importers for Bulgarian goods, inclusive of all concomitant fees, will be credited to this account.

Article 4

All payments made by Bulgarian importers for Czechoslovak goods and all concomitant fees will be debited to the account referred to in Article 3.

Article 5

The Czechoslovak National Bank and the Bulgarian National Bank will inform each other daily of payment orders received.

Article 6

In case of low balance of the account referred to in Article 3, the Czechoslovak National Bank will, upon instructions from the Bulgarian National Bank, make payments up to a sum of 150 million Czechoslovak crowns. In case of low balance of the account referred to in Article 3, the Bulgarian National Bank will, upon instructions from the Czechoslovak National Bank make payments up to a sum of 150 million Czechoslovak crowns

Article 7

Both parties agree that within the framework of their payment regulations, funds may be transferred for the following purposes other than the payment of goods as provided for in Article 3:

- a) Expenses for the maintenance of diplomatic, consular, and commercial representatives.
- b) Fees, royalties, pensions, salaries, social security claims, etc.
- c) Patents, license and registered trade name fees, film rentals, authors' royalties.
- d) Maintenance of commercial missions which have been set up with permission of the competent authorities, advertising, representation and publishing expenses.
- e) Travel, tourist and school expenses.
- f) Transfers of salaries earned by Bulgarian gardeners and workers working in the Czechoslovak Republic.
- g) Any other payments on which both contracting parties shall have agreed.

Article 8

All payments resulting from the trade treaty between Bulgaria and the Czechoslovak Republic signed on 31 July 1946 will be made to the account provided for in Article 3 of this agreement, provided that no other manner of payment has been decided upon.

Article 9

The conversion of Czechoslovak crowns to Bulgarian leva or Bulgarian leva to Czechoslovak crowns for payments not connected with the exchange of goods will be established on the basis of the official exchange rate of the U.S. dollar in Prague and on the official exchange rate of the U.S. dollar in Sofia.

Article 10~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

In the event of a change in the ration between the Czechoslovak crown and the U.S. dollar, this changed ratio will be applied to the account provided under article 3 of this agreement.

3. Notes

- a) Chairman of the Czechoslovak Delegation

Prague, 7 April 1948

Mr. Chairman:

I have the honor to acknowledge that in the course of negotiations concerning a trade treaty between the Czechoslovak Republic and the People's Republic of Bulgaria which have come to an end today, it has been agreed that payment for finished products and for mass-produced goods will be made by means of a credit account to be opened one month prior to delivery of the goods.

Should a down-payment be demanded in the case of goods which have been the subject of a special order, this down-payment will not exceed 30% of the total value of the order.

Please accept, Mr. Chairman, the expression of my respect.
